If you are not a tax-payer please tick the box and don't sign the statement above

Please be aware that your details will be held on our Society database but will not be given to third parties. Your name and contact details will appear in the next issue of the Society journal in the "new members" section. If you do not want your details published please tick the box. If you tick this box, we are unable to publish your personal requirements in the "members interests" section.

I would prefer to access my copy of the quarterly journal through the members section of the Society Web Site, rather than a paper copy through the post
